

HOUSE SURE TO BE REPUBLICAN; DOUBTS AS TO THE SENATE

Overtown of Legislative Affairs Sure; Prohibition Wins in Most States

BY L. C. MARTIN
(United Press Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—With the house of representatives Republican and control of the senate still in doubt, a tremendous overturn of legislative affairs is expected after March 4 next. The passing from Democratic to Republican control of the house means that all the great house committee chairmanships will revert to Republicans. Whether a similar change will take place also in the senate appeared today to depend upon the final returns from three states—New Mexico, Idaho and Michigan.

Exclusive of these three states, the Republicans today appeared to have 47 votes in the senate to 46 for the Democrats. The Republicans must get two of the doubtful states to win the majority.

With five districts not yet heard from, the Republicans appear to have carried the house of representatives with 234 seats, or 15 more than the 219 necessary for a majority. Foreseeing the inevitable conflict, in which the advantage will rest with congress, since it makes the laws, the President's friends in congress may attempt to forestall the Republicans by acting now. Control does not pass from Democratic hands until March 4 next.

MISSOURI STAYS WET; WYOMING, WASHINGTON, MINNESOTA DRY
CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—"Dry" victories seemed certain today in every state west of the Mississippi where the liquor question was an election issue, with the exception of California and Missouri.

Wyoming shifted from the "wet" to the "dry" column by a two to one vote, returns today indicated.

Colorado remained "dry." Washington ratified a prohibition amendment passed by its legislature, assuring a "bone dry" state.

The result in Minnesota, where statewide prohibition was an issue, was close, with indications today pointing to a "dry" victory by a small margin.

With less than half the California vote tabulated, "wets" were leading by 20,000 in the count on a "bone dry" measure.

Missouri remained "wet."

REPUBLICANS SAY CANDIDATES ARE ELECTED IN NEW MEXICO

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 7.—Republicans today claimed re-election of A. B. Fall to the United States senate by 2500 and election of B. C. Hernandez to the lower house over G. A. Richardson, Democratic congressional candidate, by 1000 majority. Indications in early returns point to the victory of G. A. Larrazolo, Republican, over Felix Garcia, Democrat, for governor by 2000.

The Australian ballot system, used for the first time in a New Mexico state election, is making the count very slow.

NEWBERRY LEADS FORD FOR SENATOR IN MICHIGAN

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 7.—Truman H. Newberry was leading Henry Ford by approximately 6000 votes today with less than 200 small rural normally Republican precincts to hear from.

Newberry managers believe the final figures will show just that majority.

The figures as given out today by both Republican and Democratic state central committees practically tally. They show 207,543 votes for Newberry and 201,643 for Ford.

REPUBLICAN DEFEATS SOCIALIST FOR MAYOR OF MINNEAPOLIS

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Mayor Thomas Van Lear, Socialist, has been defeated for re-election by J. E. Meyers, Republican, by 1173 votes, complete returns showed today.

8 REPUBLICANS, 2 DEMOCRATS TO HOUSE FROM MINNESOTA

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 7.—Minnesota has sent eight Republicans and two Democrats to the House, returns today indicated. W. L. Cars, Democrat, defeated Representative Miller, Republican, in the Eighth district, and Representative Van Dyke, Democrat, was re-elected in the Fourth.

PROHIBITION LEADS BY 6000 VOTES, OHIO TABLE SHOWS

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Official tabulations of the vote on prohibition show the drys leading by almost 6000, with only a few hundred precincts yet to report.

James A. White, dry leader, this morning claimed the final returns would show Ohio in the prohibition column by over 15,000.

FOUR NAMES ADDED TO THE COUNTY'S DEFENSE COUNCIL

Plan For Gathering Historical Data Presented and Approved

At a regular meeting of the County Council of Defense yesterday four additional names were added to the roll of the county council.

B. F. Deswick was named as chairman of a committee to encourage and look after the planting of war gardens by schools and pupils. He and Judge West, chairman of the council, are to recommend additional members of the committee.

An important post was given to Charles F. Smith of Santa Ana, he is made chairman of the commercial economies committee, which committee is to encourage and arrange for cooperation of merchants in opening and closing hours, in deliveries and in other matters of economy.

Miss Jeannette McFadden, librarian of Santa Ana Public Library, has received appointment as a member of the county council from Director Moore of the state council. She is head of the movement for collecting books and periodicals for soldiers and sailors.

District Attorney L. A. West was selected as chairman of the War Donations Committee, which is an important committee in that when it is in operation permits for war donations and benefit entertainments for war institutions of any kind must be secured from this committee. The committee's jurisdiction is the entire county.

The plan for cooperation of the Woman's Council of Defense in completing a record of men in war service for the county was outlined by A. E. Gardner, chairman of the history committee. As the women go from house to house getting new food cards signed, they will gather the data concerning all men and women in war service.

BONE DRY BILL PROBABLY LOST; WOOD VICTOR OVER HYATT

Indications Today Are That All Amendments Proposed in State Are Defeated

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Not an important content in Tuesday's election seemed undecided today. The only question left for the political dopesters is the exact size of some of the majorities.

The defeat of the prohibition amendment was variously estimated from 30,000 to 45,000 here today. Drys, however, refuse to concede the defeat of the amendment, and say that country returns, slow in coming in, may pull the amendment through by a few thousand. They seek consolation by declaring the new legislature is dry and will ratify the National Prohibition amendment. San Francisco voted more than three to one against prohibition.

The decisive defeat of the Rominger bill, caught between the barrage of extreme drys and extreme wets, is one of the surprises of the election in the minds of many students of politics.

Governor Stephens' majority over Theodore A. Bell is expected to reach 100,000. With the exception of San Francisco every large community in the state favored the re-election of the governor.

C. C. Young was given a decisive margin over Jo V. Snyder in the race for lieutenant governor and Will Wood has been elected state superintendent of Public Instruction over Edward Hyatt by a majority of seven to five. Both of these contests were close for a time yesterday.

Justices Lennon and Wilbur were elected to the two Supreme court jobs, defeating Justice Lorigan.

The political complexion of California's delegation in Congress will be unchanged. In the Seventh district Barbour, Republican, won the seat occupied by Congressman Church, who did not run, defeating Henry Hawson. Early returns yesterday indicated Hawson's election. This Republican victory, however, was offset by the defeat of Congressman Hayes, Republican, by Hugh Hersman, Democrat.

Every proposed amendment to the state constitution was probably defeated. Single tax and the health insurance amendment were downed by particularly large margins.

SOUTH FAILS TO RETURN AS BIG DRY VOTE AS EXPECTED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—With Southern California's vote still incomplete, indications today were that this end of the state had failed to give bone dry prohibition as big a vote as had been expected.

Returns from 717 complete Los Angeles county precincts gave for prohibition 37,200 and 34,363 against. Imperial county complete gave 1203 yes and 531 no.

Other Southern California returns on prohibition were:

San Bernardino, 151 precincts—Yes, 7125; no, 4950.

Kern, 116 precincts—Yes, 3681; no, 2670.

Orange, complete—Yes, 7696; no, 3216.

Santa Barbara, 60 precincts—Yes, 2782; no, 2030.

INTEREST NOW CENTERS IN GOVERNOR APPOINTMENTS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—After-election speculation was the chief interest of politicians here today. They pointed out that Governor Stephens now has many fine offices in the state government which are to be filled and the big question was as to who would do the plucking.

The governor celebrated late yesterday by making two appointments just as a starter. He promoted Harry Encell of Oakland from the post of railway commission examiner to attorney for the commission and named E. A. McGittigan of San Francisco as recorder for the railway commission.

The post of bank commissioner was drawing much gossip with rumors floating around that Friend Richardson, elected state treasurer by a big vote, would be given the place and a new treasurer named. The names of Harley Bundage and Marshal Stinson were heard in connection with railway commission appointments.

Then there will be a new executive secretary to the governor to fill the place of Jack MacFarland, who has resigned to enter an officers' training camp at Louisville, Kentucky.

Passage of Constitutional Amendment No. 9 created two new appellate judgeships—one in Los Angeles and the other at San Francisco. The governor will name the two new judges and the talk around headquarters was that he proposed to make both selections from men now on the superior bench.

A successor to Corporation Commissioner Carnahan also is to be named.

HAYDEN ELECTED TO CONGRESS; ARIZONA GOVERNOR IN DOUBT

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Although Hayden, Democrat, is conceded elected as congressman by the Republicans, the race for governor still remained doubtful today. Colter, Democrat, had a margin yesterday, but late returns cut it down and early today Campbell, Republican, claimed he would be elected by 500.

"FLU" SERIOUS AT VISALIA

VISALIA, Nov. 7.—For the first time since influenza became epidemic in California the disease has assumed a serious stage in Visalia. All hospitals here are filled, with few trained nurses available to take care of the large number of patients. Physicians attribute the sudden increase in new cases to damp weather of the past few days.

Dinuba and Tulare also report sudden increases in the number of sick and nursing staffs inadequate.

Keep the Home Baking Safeguarded

Housekeepers who have always used Royal Baking Powder with utmost satisfaction are sometimes importuned by canvassers to try other baking powders because they are cheaper or under the false pretense that they have been especially selected for Government use.

The Government is now using Royal Baking Powder and has used it continuously for forty years.

Be on your guard against cheap baking powders as they invariably contain alum which is derived from mineral sources.

The label on the can will show whether the baking powder you now use, or any brand new or old that may be offered, contains alum.

Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar which is derived from grapes. It contains no alum, leaves no bitter taste and is absolutely pure.

GERMANY BREAKS OFF RELATIONS WITH RUSSIA

Hungary Declares Herself Neutral, as Hun and Bolsheviks Near Struggle

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 7.—Alexander Joffe, Bolshevik ambassador to Germany, has been handed his passports, according to dispatches received today.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Germany has broken off diplomatic relations with Russia, it was reported here today, pending guarantees against implanting Bolshevism in Germany and punishment of conspirators concerned in the murder of Ambassador Mirbach.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 7.—Hungary has declared itself neutral in the threatened trouble between Germany and the Russian Bolshevik government, according to advices received here today.

The Hungarian war minister has ordered that all German troops traversing his country shall be transported without arms.

Germany, it is declared, requested the Bolsheviks to withdraw her diplomatic representatives until the murder of German Ambassador Mirbach has been atoned and until Russia guarantees its organizations will not conduct revolutionary propaganda in Germany. The German ambassador at Moscow also has been ordered home.

ANALYSIS OF THE LATE WAR MOVES

By J. W. T. MASON
(United Press War Expert)

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Allied powers have added the principle of an indemnity to the peace terms to be forced on Germany and have pronounced against any radical change in sea power. These are the two most important facts that must go before the country for consideration in Marshal Foch's armistice conditions. They are supplementary to President Wilson's fourteen points and they will play a far-reaching part in the peace negotiations.

The principal of an indemnity is stated in the form of compensation to be paid by Germany for damage done to Allied civilians and their property by land, sea and air. This means that Germany not only must restore ravaged Belgium, Northern France and Serbia, but must also pay for the damage done by the murderous air raids, directed against the civilian population of France and Great Britain and for destruction at sea by the piratical acts of the kaiser's submarines. The Germans will thus have to remunerate relatives of civilians murdered on the high seas and also must pay for all merchant ships illegally sunk. Thus Germany will not be allowed to escape free of financial penalties for the brutal manner in which she has disregarded all laws of civilization.

On the subject of freedom of the seas, Germany has clung to the hope that she will be able to separate America from the Allies and thus gain a victory at the peace conference for Teutonic cunning and subtlety. The freedom of the seas demanded by the Germans is for the purpose of making Germany immune to any blockade in future wars. Germany wants the principle established that by freedom of the seas, all countries contiguous to Germany, such as Holland and Scandinavia, shall be able to act as German agents and import whatever goods they wish during war-time for Germany's benefit. If this principle were now in force, neutral shipping could carry food and war supplies to Holland and Scandinavia for the use of the Germans while the Americans and Allies stood helpless to interfere. One of the principal reasons for the collapse of Germany's allies is the scarcity of food in the central empires. With the doctrine of freedom of the seas, interpreted as Germany wants it, there would have been no such food shortage as the Teuton allies have suffered, and the democratic nations would not be as near victory as they are.

The Germans will not get that kind of freedom of the seas out of the peace conference.

CALL IS RECEIVED HERE FOR LIMITED SERVICE SOLDIERS

O. H. Clayton Is to Go to Special Training School at Once

The local exemption board has received instructions to enroll limited service men for an early call. The call is for stenographers, clerks and bookkeepers. Any limited service man who desires to go in answer to this call may leave his name with the local board at once. The names will be reported to Adjutant General Borree, and he will then wire, telling the board how many men to send.

Orders have been received whereby Orlando Hershel Clayton of 725 South Main street is to go at once to Ft. Rosecrans for instruction of candidates for officers' training school.

CAN GET HELP IN MAKING OUT QUESTIONNAIRES

Questionnaires for 18-year-olds and for men over 36 and under 46 are being mailed out daily by the local draft board, score a few at a time. The legal advisory board through Attorney J. C. Burke has made arrangements for giving assistance to registrants who desire help in making out their questionnaires. Tables will be placed on the court house lawn, and the war brides and other young women who helped in the questionnaire help.

MORE WEIGHT, STRENGTH, VIGOR AND NERVE-FORCE

If You Take Bitro-Phosphate Says Dr. F. S. Kolle

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

Frederick Kolle, M. D., editor of New rush last month, will give their services in the work again. An attorney will be present each day to give legal advice free. The questionnaire corps will be on hand from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. each day, commencing tomorrow, excepting Sundays. There will be no evening sessions.

REV. JOHN S. LAUBACHER DEAD

OXNARD, Nov. 7.—Rev. John S. Laubacher, for many years pastor of Santa Clara Church here and among the best-known of Southern California clergy, died of influenza Tuesday night after an illness of less than a week. Father Laubacher, although in poor health, was tireless in attendance on the sick during the present epidemic until he contracted the disease himself. He came to Los Angeles in 1897 and to Oxnard in 1901. He built the present Santa Clara church and has been its pastor ever since. He was a native of Ohio and was 49 years of age. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Anna Laubacher; three brothers, and three sisters.

PORTERVILLE PICKS COTTON

PORTERVILLE, Nov. 7.—For the first time in the history of the Porterville district cotton is being picked commercially, and the first lot of lint will be on the way to gin in Corcoran within the next few days.

The pioneer cotton grower is S. H. Stevenson, who is growing ten acres of Long-staple Egyptian as an inter crop on the A. M. Sanborn olive grove near here. Sanborn is the pilot of a tank somewhere in France.

According to Mr. Stevenson the crop will run upwards of 700 pounds of the best quality long staple and on the basis of prevailing prices will net better than $400 per acre.

YORK Physician's "Who's Who," says: "Bitro-Phosphate should be prescribed by every doctor and used in every hospital to increase strength and nerve force and to enrich the blood."

By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION:—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.

THE WAR IS ENDED

The war is ended!
The most glorious news that ever came to Santa Ana came in a telephone message to the Register from the United Press office
in Los Angeles this morning.
The War Is Ended!
Germany, beaten to her knees,
facing annihilation, has surrendered unconditionally. Victory has come to the Allies.
Down upon your knees, lift your eyes to God, for the war is ended!
Let the bells ring and the whistles blow, and turn loose the agony of suspense. Let the tears of joy flow as never before!
The most terrible chapter in human history is closed. Death and destruction and despair that has torn the world asunder has ceased.
Peace, blessed peace, for which men have laid down their lives, for which untold millions have suffered untold miseries—peace is here!

THE WAR IS ENDED!

CAPT. HOLDERMAN

When one has read Captain Holderman's letters telling of his experiences with the Lost Battalion, there comes a feeling of awe, and then there sweeps over us a thrilling pride that grows as we reverently go over the details of that four-day siege.

We have had no moment of shame for the conduct of a single man who has gone out from our county to fight the great fight in France. Every word
we have received from the front shows that our boys have gone into the hell of battle fearlessly and willing to meet whatever sacrifice it might hold for them. The cheerfulness that fills the letters of our boys, be they wounded,
entering the fray or returning from it,
has opened up wider still the gateways
of our unbounded faith and affection for them.

That our own Captain Holderman
—our Neb Holderman—should have gone through what he went through,
that he lives to tell the tale, that one of our own boys shall go down in history as one of the officers who went through that terribly glorious battle of the Lost Battalion, which shall forever stand out as one of the high lights in the history of Americans in this war—words fail to express our emotions and the depth of our pride.
And if it be true that Sergt. Nat Rochester, that sunny lad, met his death in that action, his supreme sacrifice shall forever bring the historic story of the Lost Battalion close in our hearts. It is not certain that Nat Rochester was slain. It is not even certain that he was wounded. God grant that he be safe!

Indeed, this war is brought close home to us these days. Hundreds of our strong Orange county boys have been in action. The casualty lists have had the names of some of them, and we fear and know that there will be more familiar names upon those lists.

And when we know what our boys are facing over there, when, for instance, what Captain Holderman has been through, how puny, how small indeed are the sacrifices we make!
Aside from the sacrifice that is made by the separation of those who are very near and very dear to each other,
it is sacrifice to apply the word sacrifice to what little we have done here
at home.

A LOAN THAT FAILED

Germany's present eagerness for peace is based as much on financial as on military disaster. The ninth German war loan was as conspicuous a failure as the fourth American loan was a success. In contrast to the $6,000,000,000 subscribed by our people, the Germans are reported to have subscribed less than $500,000,000, only about one-eighth as much as their last loan.

Their military failure has made them realize their financial peril.
We are accustomed to thinking that we ended our Civil war with an enormous debt; and so we did, judged by ordinary standards. But while the debt of the victorious northern states in 1865 amounted to $114 per capita,
the debt of defeated Germany is now more than $450 per capita, and still rising fast.

The Germans have always been buoyed up with the promise that their war debt would be wiped out by indemnities imposed on their beaten foes. Now they have suddenly awak-

to the fact that they are not going to collect any indemnities—that on the contrary, they may be obliged to raise more billions in forced payments to the nations they have wronged.

So there are accumulating signs of financial panic to add to the other troubles of a disillusioned nation.
Currency is being hoarded. The government's credit is gone. Business credit is shot to pieces. There are runs on banks. Stock values are tumbling. All of which adds to the effect of the Allied offensive, and fans
the flames of German revolution.

ROYAL CASUALTIES

This is certainly a bad war for kings.
We hope that Kaiser Wilhelm, in the midst of his many troubles, is giving due heed to the royal casualty list.

It is getting to be a long list.
Czar Nicholas, most absolute of autocrats, went first—a "complete casualties," as the French say. He was the kaiser's brother-in-law, and had often done his bidding. Then came the king of Greece, another pliant brother-in-law. He abdicated after potent urging, yielding the crown to a son who is pledged to rule constitutionally.

Then followed the king of Bulgaria, who called himself a "czar," and who was a German of the Germans,
also related to Wilhelm, and so crooked and docile as to be dearly beloved by him. He, too, like the king of Greece, had to abdicate in favor of a fairly decent son who is content, to let the people have their way.

Followed then Enver Bey, the uncrowned monarch of Turkey, who ruled autocratically in the name of a puppet sultan, and who has been swept with the rest into the dust-pan of history.

And now comes Kaiser Karl, the autocrat of Austria-Hungary, whose people have shelled him without even taking the trouble to demand his ab-dication—a sovereign without a subject and a man without a country, begging a crust of sympathy and a quiet place to sleep.

Next—Wilhelm. It is the peremp-tory call of fate. How long can this Hohenzollern, who has so long shaken the big world, hold out against the judgment of mankind and the awakening anger of his duped people?

The responsibility of the individual to the state and to the community is being greatly stressed at the present time. The world war and liberty loans and welfare work and influenza safeguards all combine to declare that "no man liveth unto himself." Personal liberty and individual independence must bow to the general welfare. This may come hard to individuals and societies, who claim too great independence, but the lesson will be wholesome and salutary.

The Country's Reply

(Riverside Press)
President Wilson on the eve of election made a partisan appeal for the election of a Democratic congress that was unparalleled in the history of the country. He went beyond the position of narrow partisanship, which has characterized his administration from the beginning, and by implication reflected on the loyalty and patriotism
of the Republicans.

He now has his answer.
The issue was up to the people and at the time the appeal was made, the chances favored the success of the Democrats; but the unfairness of the president's attempt to "do politics"
with the war was so generally recognized and resented that a Republican majority was elected in both senate and house.

The result does not mean that the nation is not back of the president in demanding the unconditional surrender of Germany and a just peace, but it means that this support is not along partisan lines. The most effective support for war policies which has been given in congress has been from the Republicans; and the devotion and loyalty of the men and women of the country to the causes for which we are fighting in the world war have not been on partisan lines.

STEPHENS GOES OUT OF COUNTY WITH LEAD OF 6336

Prohibition Measure Given Decisive Majority, Single Tax Slapped Hard

Orange county did her full share in swelling the grand total of votes cast for Governor Stephens and he went out of this county with 6336 votes more than Bell. Stephens' vote was 9361 and Bell's 3025. The final count for the county was made at 9 o'clock this morning, when the returns from Los Alamitos came in.

One of the surprises of the election in this county was the big vote given Mrs. Stella Irvine of Riverside in her campaign for Congress from the Eleventh Congressional District, and that support is attributed in a large measure to the appeal of President Wilson to support Democrats for Congress.
Kettner is elected, but his expected majority in Orange county was trimmed down more than it would have been had President Wilson kept out of print. His majority in this county over Mrs. Irvine is 1774.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction, Wood led Hyatt by 2108
votes.

Final figures show that Jackson defeated Jernigan by 2702 votes. Jackson received 7230 and Jernigan 4528.

Returns on the amendments show that a large majority of voters expressed themselves on all the amendments. That this county is strong for prohibition is shown in a decisive manner for Amendment No. 22 carried

HEAVY TOLL AT FT. MACARTHUR
LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Nov. 7.
—Influenza has taken a heavy toll at a single case at the fort. Many of these men were taken off the train

CELEBRATION OF WAR END WILL BE BIG EVENT SATURDAY

Plans Already Under Way For Holding Monster Demonstration In City

Santa Ana's impromptu celebration today of the signing of the armistice by German war representatives wasn't a circumstance to that which Santa Ana will have next Saturday afternoon from 12 to 4 o'clock. Arrangements already have been started by R. L.
Bisby for a regular old-time celebration and everyone in the city is requested to get ready for it at once.

The stores will be requested to close from 12 to 4 o'clock so that every one may participate in the event in some manner, either as a witness to it or in taking active part in its development.

The big time will be at Liberty Park
at the corner of Broadway and Sixth streets. A large flag pole will be erected and the Stars and Stripes, Allied flags, and Liberty Loan Honor flags
for the city and county will be unfurled and floated from the mast.

The band will be secured and speaking will be on the program. The full details of the event have not yet been matured; but will be completed in time for publication in the Register tomorrow.

All organizations—political, church or fraternal—are requested to join in the parade with some kind of a float
or whatever may be deemed advisable.
Organizations and individuals are requested to exercise their originality and get up something that will be particularly appropriate to the occasion.
Automobiles, decorated or with banners, are wanted in line.

Anyone wanting further information on any point can obtain the same by calling R. L. Bisby at Pacific 888.

LAND SETTLEMENT AT DURHAM NOW OPEN, 31 FARMS READY

Plan Showing Location, Area, Prices of Tracts, Etc., at Farm Advisor's Office

Farm Advisor Wahlberg has received notice of the opening of the State Land Settlement situated near Durham, Butte county, Cal. Thirty-one farms and five farm laborers' allotments are open to inspection and selection by intending settlers from October 15 to November 20, 1918.
The land now offered to settlers is a part of the tract purchased by the State Settlement Board in May, 1918,
together with certain water rights.
More than half of this land is now settled and being rapidly improved.
Those securing farms in the land now thrown open to settlement will form a part of an established and organized community. The same financial aid and practical advice given to earlier settlers will be extended to those securing allotments in this area; the aim of the board being to help settlers bring these farms into full production at the least cost and in the shortest possible time.

The object of the State Land Settlement Act is to create broader opportunities for people of limited capital to acquire homes, and to carry out a community development in accordance with carefully thought-out plans.

A plan showing the location of the settlement, the area and prices of the farms and farm laborers' allotments, and the terms on which they may be purchased, may be had through the farm advisor's office, Register building, Santa Ana.

WED AT RIVERSIDE

Miss Catherine Cubbon and Clarence Skiles Principals at Morning Wedding

A wedding ceremony, which will greatly interest Santa Ana and Orange county people, was solemnized yesterday morning at an impressive service performed by Rev. Van Doring of All Saints' Episcopal church, at Riverside, when Miss Catherine Cubbon and Clarence B. Skiles became man and wife.

The bride is the only daughter of John Cubbon and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Skiles, pioneer families of Santa Ana. Miss Cubbon was born in this city and both attended Santa Ana high school and had been schoolmates in the primary grades.

The ceremony was witnessed by the bride's father, her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Warner and cousin, Miss Margaret Ore. Miss Ore stood with the bride and her father gave her in marriage. She wore a charming gown of brown velvet with hat to match and the only ornament was a brooch, which was a wedding present from her father to her mother.

A wedding dinner was served at the Mission Inn after the ceremony. After a brief honeymoon, Mrs. Skiles will return here to make her home with her father, as the groom has been called to service and will leave for Kelly Field next Monday. The marriage was hurried on this account.

LET GIRLS CHOOSE

Appearance Means a Great Deal in Happiness at School or Play

Age has little or nothing to do with the feminine instinct, and at a very tender age little daughter demonstrates that she is a true daughter of Eve.

It is doubtful if all parents really realize the extent to which a child's happiness at school and at play depends upon her clothes.

Often mothers have but a faint conception of the ructions, jealousies and misery that seethe in the undercurrent of their daughter's school life, and most of them caused by the fact that some little maids do not feel or look as well as their more fortunate playmates.

Extravagance in the dressing of children is not only very foolish, but it is absolutely wrong. For not alone is unessential expenditure of money means as a matter of fact—but always that savors of ostentation inculcates wrong ideals in the youthful mind.

On the other hand, every little one has a perfect right to be clad becomingly and in good taste, and the mother who is at all wise in her day and generation will see to it that her small maid's clothes conform to these requirements.

Simplicity is the order of the day, and a point that cannot be emphasized too strongly to the receptive mind of the young girl is that attention to detail does a great deal to make one look nice and that clean, white collars and unadorned ribbons will set off to good advantage the plainest little dress.

Learn Lesson From Europe

"America may learn a lesson from the social welfare war conditions in England and France, which have so immeasurably improved the physical condition of their women workers, decreased the mortality among children, and secured still better working hours," said Dr. Woods Hutchinson yesterday before a meeting of the Maternity Service Association of Los Angeles, over which Dr. Olga McNie, president, presided.

Dr. Hutchinson said that the organization has taken the right step in working toward the idea that women are all taxpayers in one form or another, and that the poor women should have a right to free hospital service and all necessary care at the time of childbirth.

Despite the unusual conditions in England and France, Dr. Hutchinson said, so scientifically and well are mothers and children looked after there that the infant mortality in the former nation is lower than in America.

STATE SENATOR KING MEETS WEST IN FRANCE

State Senator Lyman M. King, Redlands newspaperman, who has just returned from France, has written to Superior Judge Z. B. West from Redlands as follows:

Dear Sir: I had the pleasure of meeting your son, Lieutenant West, just before I left France, and told him I would take pleasure in letting you know that fact, on my return. I was in France as a Y. M. C. A. secretary, for a year, and saw your son about October 6 at Tours. He is a fine young man, of whom his parents have every right to be proud. He is in the best of health and I am sure is doing honor to his family and to his country. It is a pleasure to write of such a fine young man.

I met him at dinner in a French hotel, just the night before I left Tours, and with him another young man from Los Angeles. He looks fit and well and is full of "pep."

More Men are Buying at This Store

The tendency is for men to get fixed habits. It takes a powerful reason sometimes to get them to do things in any different way than the one to which they have been accustomed.

We are constantly seeing new faces in the store, and this influx of new trade has been going on for a good many months. There must be some powerful compelling motive, and we think we know what it is.

Our values and our service are beginning to tell. Value and service are hard to describe. They're intangible. But they're mighty real just the same, and the news of them has a way of getting around. If you haven't been in the store recently, it mightn't be a bad idea to give us an early call.

MODERN FUMIGATING COMPANY ORGANIZED

Dr. Wherry Heads War Work Drive; Paper Box Scheme to Foil Cabbage Worms

HARPER, Nov. 7.—Mellott brothers have organized under the name of "The Modern Fumigating Company" with W. B. Mellott president, Norris Mellott, secretary-treasurer, and C. E. Wilkinson as manager. This company, as indicated in last week's Register, will promote the general interest of the Mellott patent fumigating box and put it into practical operation in cleaning out the scale pests of the citrus growers wherever needed.

United War Work Drive

Dr. J. W. Wherry has been appointed as chairman of the United War Work Committee, for this section of the county. He has appointed Rev. L. O. Bostwick as assistant committeeman for that portion of the district lying east of the state highway including Newport Heights. He will take care of the Fairview Farms section and will appoint some one to look after the Newport mesa section. The drive will begin November 15 and last until the 18th. The war work fund to be raised will be apportioned among the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army and some other war working factors.

The Harper school is still closed indefinitely.

Mrs. David Armstrong went to Pasadena last Saturday, remaining for several days.

Mrs. Lount, sister of Mrs. E. A. Spaulding, who visited her recently from Phoenix, Ariz., has moved to Berkeley, where two sons are attending school.

Motor From South Dakota

Henry Rickert and family of Hunboldt, S. D., drove out in their motor car to their cousin's place, Charles Prinslow, of Harper. Mr. Rickert came for his health and will locate and settle where he thinks it will be most conducive to his health and comfort.

New Apple Orchard Planned

The Prinslow family took a pleasure drive to Laguna last Sunday.

Harvey Ladd has been plowing and fitting a block of land at the corner of Fourteenth and Santa Ana avenue this week, for R. G. Roberts, on which he will plant an apple orchard.

E. C. Kersey came over from San Pedro Monday evening to vote on Tuesday and returned to his work at the shipyard at 11 a. m. the same day.

Mr. Gilmour of Pasadena has built a porch on his Newport Heights summer cottage.

Their Golden Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Dodge spent their golden wedding day quietly at home on Monday, November 4, trying to make it the happiest day of the 18,250 days of their married life.

Dan Z. Uchimoto has a thrifty five acres of peppers at Sixteenth street and Santa Ana avenue that are ripening to a blaze of deep red.

Mrs. H. B. Woodrough is selling a crop of the best flavored walnuts in the state. Every nut, fruit or vegetable that grows here, in flavor, is superfine.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Young drove to Garden Grove last week on Thursday to visit Mrs. Salsburg, who is Mrs. Young's cousin, finding her very sick. Mrs. Young has remained with her since.

Heights Meeting Nov. 14

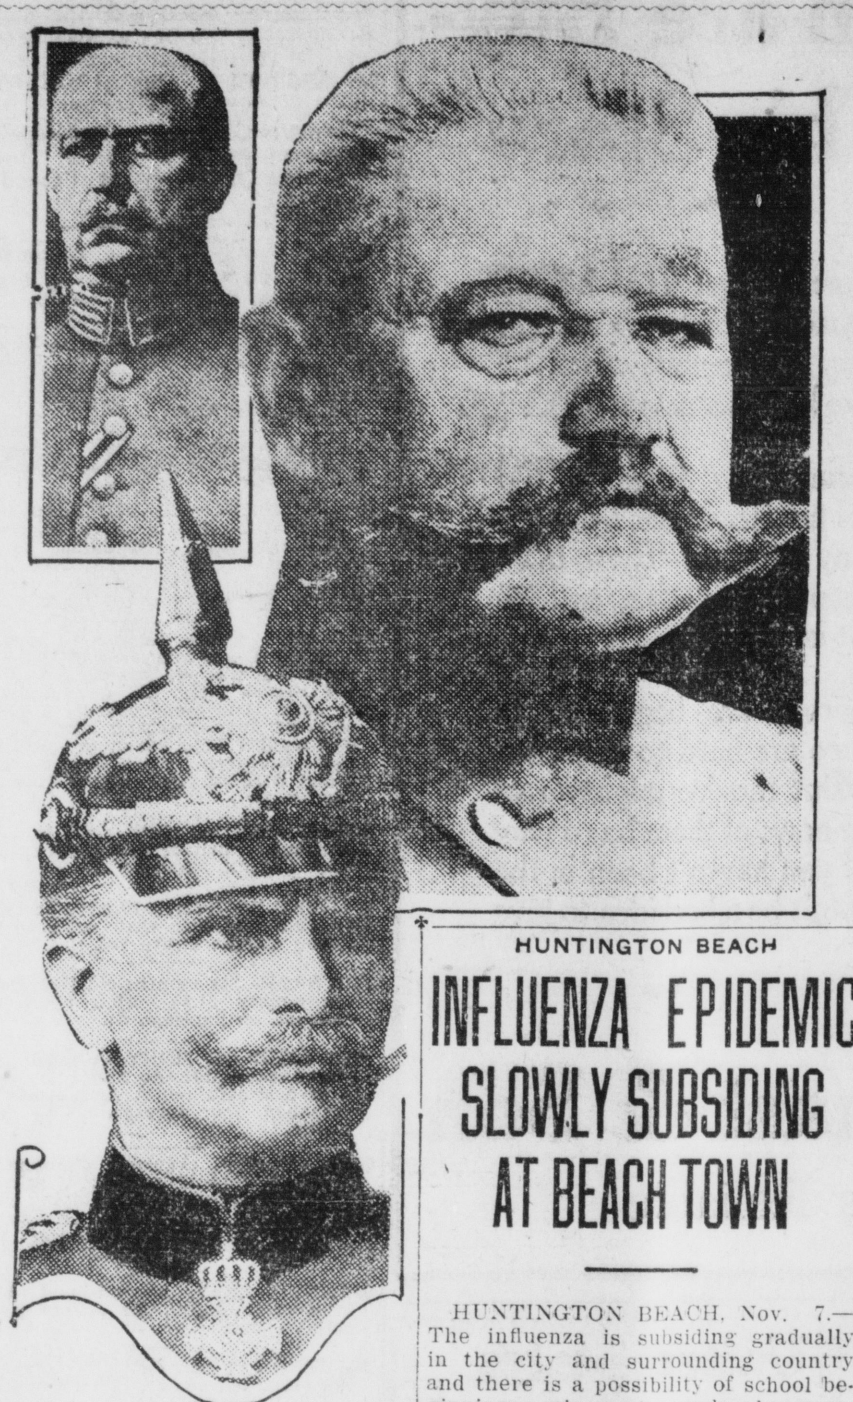

On Thursday evening, November 14, the Newport Heights Co-operative Association will hold its regular monthly meeting at the school house. An entertainment program is being arranged to make the meeting an enjoyable one and all members are urged to attend and bring their friends.

The Rev. Davis, who left this neighborhood about three months ago for a sojourn in the north, returned to his former stopping place at David Armstrong's on Monday.

Wife Is Near Death

Denton Young received a message Tuesday from Colton stating that HINDENBURG, Ludendorff, (top left) and Mackensen (lower left) have seen their vaunted militarism crushed to earth (never to rise again) by the might of the world's democracies.

HUNTINGTON BEACH INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC SLOWLY SUBSIDING AT BEACH TOWN

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Nov. 7.—The influenza is subsiding gradually in the city and surrounding country and there is a possibility of school beginning again next week, however, announcement will be made if such is the case. The health officer, Dr. Shank, says that indications point that way now.

C. W. Warner received word from his son Carlos C., this week, stating that he had arrived safely at a rest camp in England, but did not know how long he would remain there. The trip across was uneventful except the last two days it was pretty rough weather, and it had been constantly raining in England for several days.

R. S. Gardner, a druggist from Los Angeles, is assisting R. L. Olarr in his store at present. Mr. Olarr is able to be about and is improving well.

Mrs. Rose W. Wheeler of Riverside came down Saturday to look after her property on Fourteenth street and was the guest of Miss Lizzie Whealen, returning home Tuesday in time to vote.

The election in Huntington Beach passed off very quietly, and as there was no local contests on the people did not take the interest they otherwise would. Of course the conditions under the epidemic had much to do with the light vote that was cast. Not more than fifty per cent of the normal vote was out.

Reuben Catching and wife of Long Beach were in the city Tuesday looking after his property on Tenth street. Mr. Catching is working at the ship yards in East San Pedro. He has been laid up with the influenza for two weeks past and began work again this week.

Tuesday morning there were three Government officers here looking for three soldiers from Arcadia who had taken an auto and left without permission.

Tent City May Disincorporate

At a regular meeting of the Huntington Beach Tent City Company Board of Directors held Monday afternoon, it was decided to issue notice to the stockholders that the question of disincorporation would be taken up at the annual meeting in January and voted on. It takes a two-thirds majority of the outstanding stock to carry the vote for disincorporation.

The question of increasing the capital stock and trying to get many more of our citizens interested in a project that would better help out the interests of the city and community has been discussed at the Chamber of Commerce and with many of our citizens the past six months, but nothing has been materialized and many of the Tent City people think the matter has dragged along far enough, and now it is up to the citizens who do not belong to the Tent City Company to get busy and see what can be done between now and the first week in January if they desire the promotion company organized. There is no question but what such an organization would be a big help to the city.

Beet Season About Over

The last of the beets for this season's run were received at the Holly sugar plant Tuesday morning, and after a few days they expect to close down till the epidemic is cleared away, after which they will start up again and run for about a month on syrup, the most of which will be brought in from outside. The labor problem has been a serious question with them in running the factory this season, from several causes. Many of their old hands were called away to war, which, with the epidemic has cut their labor supply down to a low figure.

According to the present outlook for prices of sugar beets, another year, there will doubtless be a large increase in this portion of the county.

The report shows there have been 358 cases up to date and fifteen deaths. Six of these were out-of-town patients brought to local hospitals for treatment.

ANAHEIM MAN IN THE CASUALTY LIST ON MONDAY

ANAHEIM, Nov. 7.—Anaheim's contribution to General Pershing's army contained one name in Monday's casualty list, that of Albert Plou, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Plou of 228 Kesh street. Albert is reported "missing in action" but Mrs. Plou received a post card from him Sunday in which she was informed of a wound received in action and added that he was now in a hospital near Paris.

The war department wired Mr. Plou last Monday, explaining that his son had been reported missing in action September 6. It is evident that Albert was found wounded and removed to a hospital and the records not cleared up.

The postcard contained very little information other than that he was injured and getting along very well. He has been in the service for nearly a year.

Anaheim Boy Cited

The first information Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wallace of No. 133 Chestnut street had that her son had been cited for bravery in general orders, a copy of General Pershing's order accompanying the soldier's letter.

The order was issued over the signature of Lieutenant Colonel Bach of the general staff and attested to by the captain of Wallace's company and reads as follows:

"Headquarters, 4th Division, American Expeditionary Forces, France, October 18. General Order No. 64.—The division commander cites the conduct of Cook Henry Issler, Cook John Skipper, Private Allen C. Wallace, Private Tom Yen and Private Chew Yuen Sit, all of whom remained faithfully at their post of duty without shelter during periods of heavy shelling from September 28 to October 9, 1918. By command of Major General Hines."

WALNUT SHIPPING AT ANAHEIM WILL END NEXT WEEK

ANAHEIM, Nov. 7.—Next week is expected to end shipments of walnuts by the Anaheim Walnut Growers' Association as the organization is busily engaged in sorting and sacking at this time. Three cars were consigned to eastern points last week.

The association reports that fourteen or fifteen cars will be the figures for the season, amounting to between 6500 and 7000 standard sacks. The average price per car has been over $10,000, some shipments bringing record prices.

Walnut growers are intent upon getting the best price for their product and also bend every effort in the matter of harvesting. With the high price of nuts prevailing growers are not holding an accumulated stock.

THE WOMEN OF FRANCE CALL TO AMERICA FOR HELP

Speaker Says Salvation of Russia Is Contact With American Spirit

Visions of the tremendous work that lies ahead for the seven allied welfare organizations were given to those who yesterday afternoon and last night heard addresses by Mrs. Richard Emrick of Berkeley, a young woman crator whose heart poured out the intensity of her feeling for those women of France whom the Y. W. C. A. is helping, and by Franklin Gaylord, who painted a new and intimate picture of conditions in Russia and pointed out the great humanitarian work that lies in that country for those organizations represented in the United War Works Campaign.

Each of these speakers lifted a curtain and presented pictures that teemed with the trials and problems of France and Russia.

They Die for France
"My impression of the women of France," said Mrs. Emrick, "is that they are numb. They do not weep. The whole people are utterly weary. We cannot imagine it all. Yet through it all there is the wonderful spirit of France, the spirit of sacrifice. They die for France, gladly, smilingly."

"We don't know anything about sacrifice over here. We can't spell sacrifice and we can't pronounce service over here, as they do over there. They don't talk about it, and when we hear people over here telling of what they have done to aid the war, we realize that there is a difference. Over there they are numb, utterly weary. They don't think they are doing anything. Through it all there is a great love devotion for us to measure up to."

"Just close your eyes and think of the tens of thousands of American boys lying in hospitals over there, and you will need no other inspiration to make this drive a success. A man who holds back his money these days is fighting with the Kaiser."

"Lest we forget what the Kaiser has done—lest we forget! How can we ever forget?"

One despair of painting the picture of treatment of French women by German soldiers, as that picture was painted by Mrs. Emrick.

At Munitions Factories
Mrs. Emrick vividly painted the life of the girls in munitions factories. There the Y. W. C. A. has stepped in and in place of despair it has given hope and cheer. It has reached into the very lives and hearts of those girls.

"As I was leaving one of those places," said Mrs. Emrick, "I was told to bring this message: 'Tell the women of America how much France needs them.' It is a perfectly wonderful work. Our hands are reaching straight out to those women to hold them steady after these four years of war."

In one of her addresses Mrs. Emrick told of the work done in housing 5,000 girls working in munition factories at Bloomfield, Ill.

"These are allied organizations, each working for the good of the cause. When a company goes over the top, no one stops to ask whether a man is a Jew, a Catholic or a Protestant, and in this drive we don't ask who gives this money just so long as it goes to the good of the cause for which these organizations are all working. It is the souls of men, the souls of American soldiers, that you are working for when you work in this drive."

Wonderful Boys

"Those American boys, those wonderful boys. They smile when they go into battle, and you can't defeat a man who smiles when he fights. They grin when you see them in the hospitals. And over there let me say to you, nigger spells patriotism of the finest character this world has ever known. For those colored men have made wonderful records. The nurses—how can we tell of the wonderful spirit among those nurses who work twenty hours a day and think they are doing nothing!"

"With all that suffering over there, God grant that we do our part."

Speaking of the Y. M. C. A., Mrs. Emrick summed up its work by telling of a young soldier who said: "Any place that ain't got a Y is sure out of luck."

Describes Russia

Franklin Gaylord, for nineteen years in Russia, in opening his address declared that Russia for 500 years has been the crucible of nations. Its misery has been not of three years but of five centuries. Swept by Tartars again and again, its history reeks with desolation.

"The ordinary Russian peasant is kind hearted," said he. "He is hospitable, clever, reverent and forgiving. He has a future before him if only he can be led out of darkness."

"It was the Russian fighting on the east that allowed Joffre to win the battle of the Marne. After they had lost 4,200,000 men, they quit the war. They have saved others, but they could not save themselves. Without knowledge, they were called upon to solve the greatest problem of all ages. 'You Americans know how to be free,' is the way one of the Russian orators put it to me, and that does explain the situation, for Russia did not know how to be free. The greatest need of Russia today is contact with the American spirit. Through this drive support will be given the sixty Y. M. C. A. secretaries who are there, and the need for 125 more secretaries at once may be met."

"After this war is over, the rehabilitation of Russia is to be one of the great problems of the world. We want these organizations to help the Russian save himself, to give him a chance to help himself."

At the meeting on the courthouse steps yesterday afternoon, the speakers were introduced by Harry W. Lewis, and last night at Birch Park by Clyde Bishon.

QUARANTINE IS TO BE STRICT IN THE HEREAFTER

PUBLIC NOTICE

There has been considerable laxity in observance of the rules of quarantine for influenza in the past and notice is hereby given that hereafter the quarantine on any case of the influenza will not be raised under ten days from the date of quarantine. Strict enforcement of the regulations will be enforced. This is absolutely necessary in order to stamp the disease out in this city.

W. W. CHANDLER, Deputy Health Officer.

For the first time the flu report today by Deputy Health Officer Chandler shows a greater number of new cases placed in quarantine than have been released. This is due to the fact that the early cases have about all been released. Today ten houses with sixteen cases were placarded, while cards were removed from three houses and five cases released. There were no deaths in the city last night or in this immediate vicinity from the disease. Reports from the county outside in-
